Stephan Hausner

Born in 1963, Stephan has been working since 1988 as a healer in private practice with a focus on homeopathy, medical dowsing, osteopathy and kinesiology. He has combined his training in family constellations from Bert Hellinger with various approaches to humanistic psychotherapy. For the past 17 years, Stephan has taught and led workshops at various schools and institutes in more than 40 countries on 5 continents, focusing on the application of systemic work for ill patients. Since 2007, he has facilitated systemic constellations for patients with psychosomatic conditions and also provides training for the medical staff. Stephan is the author of the German language book: Auch wenn es mich das Leben kostet (Even if it costs me my Life) published by Carl-Auer-Systeme Verlag and translated into ten languages. The English version is published by Gestalt Press and is available through Amazon.
